

Andrea Vanzant

Different but the Same

This is a fun read for pre-school and kindergarten children about acceptance of special needs friends. It is interactive and can be read to the students in a large group or just relaxing at home. A portion of the profits will be given to Children's Hospital.

Angel Musk

Hey Skedaddle!

Angel Musk is an author located in Kentucky. Her genres include historical romance, paranormal romance, and children books. To learn more about Angel, "Like" her Facebook page, Author Angel Musk.

Angie Grigaliunas

Sowing; Quelling

Angie Grigaliunas (grig-ah-LOO-nahs) is a part-time normal person and full-time author of fantasy/dystopian young adult books, and also some romance. ("She admits it! Murderer!") She loves Jesus, the woods, and the stars, and has always wanted to be a superhero with a secret identity.

Barry M. Long

Swimming in the Ocean: 52 Devotions on Plunging into God's Abundant Life

Barry pastored the Vineyard Christian church of Northern Kentucky for 29 years that grew to over a thousand members. After retiring from the pastorate in 2015 Barry is writing, continuing church planting work and serving on the board of Reset Recovery ministries. Pastor Long resides in Northern Kentucky with his wife, France, and has three children and eight grandchildren.

Bob Webster

A Brief History of Northern Kentucky; Beverly Hills Supper Club: The Untold Story Behind Kentucky's Worst Tragedy; Northern Kentucky Fires: A Summary of the Most Memorable Fires of the Region; The Balcony is Closed: A History of Northern Kentucky's Long-Forgotten Neighborhood Movie Theaters

Bob Webster is a Northern Kentucky native and author of numerous articles on local and regional history. He has also written five books, three of which received the prestigious Kentucky History Award for Outstanding Publication. Bob currently serves as president of the Kenton County Historical Society and is employed as an agent with Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance. He is married (35 years) to his wife, Pam, and they have one son, Kevin.

Carly Jordynn

Forest of Mist series; Sasha Bishop series

Carly is an author of young adult paranormal/fantasy fiction. She also writes middle grade and new adult fiction. Her books are available on Amazon and Barnes and Noble.

Chad McClendon

Natalsa of the Brim

Chad McClendon is a creative fiction writer with stories such as Lipstick Trace, Natalsa of the Brim, Uploaded Vengeance, and others.

Charles Little Jr

Dead or Alive: The Reaper's Redemption; Sheriff Carter Link: Vanished

Charles is an author of 3 novels and a children's book and co-owner of New Legend Books & Comics.

Cheri Westmoreland

Twelve Women: Inspirational Journeys of Faith, Hope and Love; Prayers Go Up: Daily Devotional Journal

Cheri Westmoreland has a very clear and compelling message for you personally. She propels her readers with a brilliant combination of facts and stories that will expose the key components of spiritual inspiration. Cheri coaches individuals for success and service which builds capacity for professional excellence.

Cindy Lou Wehrle

The Otter & The Whale

Cindy is a Christian children's book author.

Colleen O'Connell

Pirate's Prey; Untamed Hearts

Colleen O'Connell is dedicated to giving her readers fast-paced, page-turning journeys into the historical world of romance. Her latest release, Pirate's Prey, is the story of Shane Christian and Maura Brent and their quest for the freedom to love. As the pirate, Falcon, Shane will give no quarter in pursuit of justice.

Connie Lynn Howard
The Otter & The Whale

Connie is a Christian children's book author.

Dale Due
You Are A Kentucky Wildcat, Wildcats Win Again, You Are A Louisville Cardinal

Dale grew up in Northern Kentucky and attended the University of Kentucky, graduating in 1977. You Are A Kentucky Wildcat was his first children's book, written for his grandchildren. Dale has truly enjoyed the wonderful experience sharing his books with young children across the state.

Darryl A. Jouett
Devil in the Details; Devil May Care

Darryl Jouett is a retired police detective who writes cozy mysteries featuring Bernie Devlin, an amateur sleuth who is solving crimes in the fictional city of Ridgetown, KY.

David W. Hickey
The Epic Adventures of Little Red Dog: A heartwarming tale about a rescue dog's journey to find his forever home!

The Epic Adventures of Little Red Dog is a story about a rescue dog's long and sometimes harrowing journey from a farm to his forever home in a Northern Kentucky suburb. It's a heartwarming tale of friendship, second chances and the healing power of love. The author, Dr. David W. Hickey, earned his Ed.D. from Northern Kentucky University.

Denise Denton Thiery
Random Female Syndromes...funny fixes for all the things you thought were wrong with you; Laugh Out Loud...40 Women Humorists Celebrate Then and Now...Before We forget

Anthologies by women for women and about women, told with humor, about the challenges we face in today's world. "Laugh Out Loud" is a compilation of humorous essays about growing up in the 1960s and 1970s. "Random Female Syndromes" is a series of humorous essays, primarily about gender equality issues, written by contributors to the online magazine TheSyndromeMag.

E. K. McCoy

Surviving McCoy; When Stars Align

Laugh and cry as you fall in love with the adventures of The McCoy Boys in Surviving McCoy, a 2019 Next Generation Indie Book Awards Finalist. On the pages of When Stars Align, fate and time weave a riveting, heartwarming tale of why Dr. Owens was so drawn to the mysterious girl he spotted at a frat party next door, from the minute he laid eyes on her. Their paths were destined to cross, and there was no stopping destiny.

Elle Mott

Out of Chaos: A Memoir

Elle Mott's creative nonfiction is published in literary journals, anthologies, and a national news magazine. Her memoir, "Out of Chaos" was published in August 2018 with Boyle and Dalton Publishers. She is currently working on her second book, a historical biography that will appeal to those who have a reading interest in women change-makers.

H.R. Hutzel

Anointed: BethEl Book One; The Story of Life

H.R. Hutzel is a bestselling author and a speaker who helps readers and audiences experience the familiar biblical narrative in surprising, inspiring, and challenging ways. Her latest book, Anointed, is the first installment in a young adult fantasy series that features thrilling plot twists, spiritual battles, and a surprising female heroine. If you like exploring mysterious worlds, spiritual conspiracy, and the supernatural forces of good and evil, you can find out more at hrhutzel.com.

J.T. Cooper

RUNNING; VIRAL

RUNNING and VIRAL present psychological suspense as it affects families caught in dilemmas not necessarily of their making, and are partially set in Northern Kentucky or Cincinnati. J.T. Cooper taught for many years at NKU and lives in Florence.

J. Brooks Lane

Emmaline Halloween; Bite Me Bobbi; Unbitten; Love Bites; The Higher the Hair; What's That Smell: A Skunk's Tale; The Quarter: A Skunk's Tale; Hot Southern Mess: Vegan Vittles Cookbook

A writer who writes for the love of it.

James Ott

The Greatest Brush: Love, Tragedy and Redemption of Artist Frank Duveneck
Brush is a biography of Frank Duveneck, Covington born artist (1848-1919) who gained fame in the art world as a painter in Europe. He became the leading exponent of the Realism style and became the toast of Florence in the 1880s. He excelled in portraiture and won prizes for his Rembrandt -style canvases.

Jamie Kaba

The Eggtraordinary Eggventures of Eggville: The King's Dinner Guests
Jamie is a children's book illustrator.

Jana Sullivan

Bella and Braxton; Taking Wifey to the Grave

Jana Sullivan is an urban fiction author that writes about troubles she's been through or seen in the urban/ low income community. Most of her stories are based in Covington, Kentucky.

Janet Haney

Hello Nobody; Standing at the Door Alone; What to Do When Everything Changes;
Write Your Way Through Change, A 21-Day Devotional Journal for Grief and Major Life Transition

Life often doesn't turn out as we hoped. Times of life transition or grief, can point us in a new direction. We find a new beginning can happen any time along the way.

Jennifer Brasington-Crowley

Lyndsay and Lainey Lion books; Birdsong

Jennifer is an author and illustrator from Anderson Township. She is the author of the Lyndsay and Lainey Lion children's book series (www.sunnyvillezoo.com), as well as contemporary fiction including: The Woman Who Fell to Earth, Dolphin Song, Dolphin Magic and Raven Song.

Jim White

Wine in the Sand; Lightning Strikes

Wine in the Sand is about my somewhat comic entry, stay, and exit from Desert Storm. Lightening Strikes is about a somewhat fictional scifi biography dealing with heaven, aliens and saving the Earth. OH MY!

Joan Hyams Schmitz

Carried By a Feather

In the span of twenty years, a family of three would be tragically splintered leaving only one to tell their tale. Joan's debut memoir is a story of love, loss, grief, and resilience. She credits her ability to tap into her reservoir of resilience and inner strength to a few feathered friends, a handful of tenets, a unique club, and signs, symbols, and messages from a place not so far away

Jocelyn Short

Pets Will Travel

Jocelyn worked in pet transportation and thought children needed to be educated on pet transportation and the care that is given.

Joe Tallarigo

Life Goes On; Keep The Music Playing; Forever in my Heart

Joe Tallarigo is a published poetry author with four books. His works are about life, music, family and friends.

John A. Bercaw

A Pink Mist; The Mighty Jungle; Juliet and Her Romeo

Needing something to do after I retired, I wrote my memoir about my time in Vietnam. Since discovering that I enjoyed writing, I have written two more books. It keeps my time and my brain occupied.

Karisa Moore

Broken Butterflies: Emerging Through Grief, A Suicide Survivor's Poetic Journal

Karisa Moore speaks on the unspeakable as a result of her oldest son's suicide. She embraces life alongside her husband and two living children. She loves long hikes, photography and great stories. And is a blogger at <http://turningthepageonsuicide.org>.

Karla Harney Thompson

The Messy Situation; Mari-Gold's Garden Tea

Finding a need for revisiting family values and basic life skills are two important reasons to read Karla's books. The stories are simple to understand, honest in their message, and will begin an engaging dialogue between the reader and its' young listener. Step into the "Big Back Yard" along with Karla and meet her cast of the most enchanted and whimsical of characters.

Kimberly Rose-Ulreich

Red Bird Sightings (And Other Spirit Guides to Liberation in the Mountains of West by God Virginia)

Born and raised in West Virginia, Kimberly Rose-Ulreich is a writer, animal welfare advocate, and yoga enthusiast. Red Bird Sightings is a book of fiction about family and friends in Appalachia's Mountain State who face life's challenges with love, humor, grace, and wit.

Lawrence Rock

The Tooth and the Tail; Hidden Army

Support troops comprised 90% of the three million troops who served in the Vietnam War, yet their stories have never been fully told. The Tooth and the Tail and Hidden Armies use the oral history format to finally tell these stories. Lawrence Rock, a Marine who served in Vietnam, interviewed nearly 200 men and women to share their wartime experiences.

Liz Ashlee

Step Toward You; Once Upon a Summer

Liz Ashlee is the author of Step Toward You and "Wishing on Water" in the Once Upon a Summer anthology. She is currently pursuing her M.A. in English at Northern Kentucky University, where she also received her undergraduate degrees. She currently lives in Kentucky, where she enjoys spending her time with her parents, boyfriend, friends and dogdaughter, Hero.

Megan Fricke

Spellbound; God Willing; The Creek Don't Rise

Spellbound is a historical fantasy that is four hundred pages long, with real historical facts and events, while being an engaging fantasy at the same time. The book God Willing and the Creek Don't Rise is a book of modern poetry written by the same author.

Mike Evans & Jessica McGinnis

Pathways; Alex; Hard Roads; With All My Love; The Girl Of Many Names.

Mike Evans Lives in Boone Co with his wife, three daughters and seven grandchildren. Jessica McGinnis lives in the Northern Ky. area, this is her first published book. Mike and Jessica have co-authored a book of short stories. Mike has published four books which are on the shelves of the Library.

Nathan Singer

In the Light of You; Transorbital; The Song in the Squall; Blackchurch Furnace

Dr. Nathan Singer is a novelist, playwright, composer, and experimental performing artist. His published novels are the controversial and critically-acclaimed A Prayer for Dawn, Chasing the Wolf, In the Light of You, The Song in the Squall, Transorbital, and Blackchurch Furnace. He currently lives in Cincinnati, Ohio where he is working on a multitude of new projects.

Paige Downie

Clouds/Sun; Daisy; Daydreams; Kites; Rain; Sun; Clouds; Clocks

Paige Downie is a local author and illustrator of children's books (ages 0-5) for 1st time readers. She has digital, handcrafted and now POD (print on demand) books.

Reid Kerr

I Hate It Here: A Love Story; The Great Texas Trailer Park Escape

Reid Kerr is a writer, voice artist, sunscreen enthusiast, and Reader's Digest-anointed humorist. He is the author of two books, including "I Hate It Here: A Love Story," an Amazon Top Ten Travel Book and Top Twenty Humor Book. Reid is also an experienced AudioBook narrator, with twenty books produced for other authors.

Richard Iles

Nothing is Impossible With God: A Christmas Devotional For Families

In just a few minutes a day, the entire family will experience the story of Christmas like never before! They will dive deep into the Christmas story with thought-provoking questions that will take them through the entire month of December! The birth of Jesus will come alive in this daily journey through the Biblical story of Christmas.

Rick L. Phillips

The Stranger in the Shadows; Dinky the Elf; The Door Into Murder; Project: Hero

Rick L. Phillips was born and raised in Kentucky. He received a BA in Radio, Television and Film Communications from Northern Kentucky University. He has been published since 2010.

Robert Schrage

Legendary Locals of Covington; Carl Kiger: the Man Beyond the Murder; Lost Northern KY; Along the Ohio River: From Cincinnati to Louisville; Boone County: Then and Now; Eyewitness to History: A Personal Journal

Robert Schrage is a resident of Dayton, Kentucky and Lost Northern Kentucky is his 7th book. Schrage served as Assistant Director for the Northern Kentucky Area Development District (NKADD), where he worked for 27 years and is now a professor in NKU's Master of Public Administration Program. Schrage is very active in local history circles and has served on the Boone County Historic Preservation Board and the Rabbit Hash Historic Society Board of Directors.

Rock Neelly

River of Tears; Purple Heart Detective Agency; Prince of the Border; Babylon Tears

Rock Neelly is the author of four detective novels. The most recent is River of Tears, a police procedural following two female detectives trying to find a child kidnapped from near Findlay Market in Cincinnati. He is a professor in Northern Kentucky.

Tracy N. Stokes, M.Ed.

More Than a Single Story

More Than a Single Story is a Collection that encourages writers to put voice to their goals, and to be bold while telling their story! Our goal is to provide a platform to tell the story of writers from all walks of life.

Troy Pendleton

Dead or Alive: The Reaper's Redemption; Sheriff Carter Link: Vanished; Agent 12: Awakening; The Eggtraordinary Eggventures of Eggville: The King's Dinner Guests
Troy is the author of 3 novels and a children's book and co-owner of New Legend Books & Comics.