What is the “Read with a Teen” program?

Children will spend an hour each week reading books and engaging in literacy building activities and games with local teens (grades 8-12).

Why should my child participate?

Your child will build reading skills while practicing in a fun, low pressure environment. He/she will engage in various positive literacy experiences with compassionate and responsible teen role models.

Who can participate?

Any child entering first through third grade in a Boone County school may participate. Teen partners will be carefully selected, trained, and guided by the library’s Youth Services staff throughout the program.

When is the program?

The program is from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. for seven weeks, June—July, at both the Main Library and Scheben Branch. Children are encouraged to attend all sessions at their chosen location(s):

Scheben:	Tuesday, June 5	Tuesday, July 10
	Tuesday, June 12	Tuesday, July 17
	Tuesday, June 19	Tuesday, July 24
	Tuesday, June 26
Main:	Thursday, June 7	Thursday, July 12
	Thursday, June 14	Thursday, July 19
	Thursday, June 21	Thursday, July 26
	Thursday, June 28
